Sentence

'Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you,' says the Lord. 'Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.'
(John 14.27)

Collect

Great and loving God, your will for us in your Son Jesus is the peace which the world cannot give, your abiding gift, the Advocate he promised. Calm all troubled hearts, dispel every fear, and keep us steadfast in love and faithful to your word. Grant this through Jesus Christ, the firstborn from the dead, who lives with you now and always in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER LECTIONARY REFLECTION

Jesus gently tries to prepare the disciples for the day when he will no longer be present to them in bodily form. Unlike us, who know the story, they did not know what was coming next, so they are confused. 'Presence' has always been important to God.

Scripture tells us that God dwelt with us in the Garden of Eden. God dwelt with us in the tabernacle and in the temple. God dwells with us in Christ – the Emmanuel. God dwells within us now, as each of us is a temple of the Holy Spirit, bearing Christ to each other. Jesus came into our world and lived as one of us. Through His death, resurrection and ascension, God did away with everything that separates us from each other. It is Christ's faithfulness and love that demonstrates to us that God dwells with us wherever we go. So, as we go into the world, let us have confidence that the presence of God goes with us, and is with those we meet.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER LECTIONARY REFLECTION

In this final part of Jesus' prayer during his discourse to his disciples at the Last Supper, Jesus now prays for all those who through the influence of disciples before us came to believe in Christ as Lord. Each one of us is among those Jesus is praying for here.

In this prayer Jesus prays above all for unity among his disciples as the most effective sign of witness. "By this will all know that you are my disciples, that you have love for one another," he had told his disciples earlier on in the discourse.

He now prays that we may display the same unity among ourselves and with Jesus as that which binds Jesus and the Father. It is through the love that Christians, coming as they do from so many ethnic groups and all classes of people, show for each other that they give the most effective witness to the message of Christ. "May they be so completely one that the world will realise that it was you who sent me." www.sacredspace.ie

COVID SAFETY

Please continue to observe hand sanitising and safe food handling protocols. Whilst masks are no longer mandatory you are encouraged to wear one for your ongoing protection. Thank you for your cooperation.

We are not currently taking up a collection during the service. You will find the offertory plate at the back of the church at the entry to the worship area. Alternatively, you could consider giving by direct debit. Forms are available in the foyer or on our website.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Health & Safety in the parish is the responsibility of everyone, and we encourage you all to promptly report all unsafe matters you see within the church or grounds to Bob Laurenson (93415914) or David Munt (9385 9323 ). Please check out our Health and Safety noticeboard in the hall for important information.

ASCENSION THURSDAY

Eternal God by raising Jesus from the dead you proclaimed his victory, and by his ascension, you declared him Lord of all: lift up our hearts to heaven, where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Anglican Church of the Ascension, Midland Emergency Food Relief

Thank you for your continued donations to this mission and to Dick Shepherd who co-ordinates the delivery of our food and supplies. While long life milk, soup tins or packets, cereal, pasta, pasta sauce, tinned veggies are regularly needed, with winter soon upon us blankets, sleeping bags and socks are also required.

Congratulations & blessings to Jocelyn Munt who celebrates her birthday on May 30th and to all who celebrate a birthday or anniversary in the coming fortnight.
