Reflection from Sacred Space on today's gospel reading (Matthew 18:21-35)

Forgiveness is never easy. A grace from God. Surely to forgive one's brother or sister up to seven times is pretty generous! After all, there has to be a limit, at least so Peter thought! Not so, according to Jesus: seventy-seven times. No limit, endless and on-going. This is how the Lord loves you. "I forgave you all that debt...." (Matthew 18:32).

If we must be prepared to forgive seventy-seven times, then we must also be ready to ask for forgiveness – and believe we are forgiven – seventy-seven times." Does forgiveness flow back and forth in my dealings with others, or is it rare in my life?

Thank you Lord for forgiving me seventy-seven times and more. Give me the grace to forgive someone today.
